Re: Your Request to File More Lawsuits Despite the Previous Order Declaring You a Vexatious Litigant

Dear Ms. Albanese:

I received your enclosed letter in my capacity as Chief Judge. Judge Dorsey previously declared you a vexatious litigant. See Albanese v. Federal Bureau of Investigations, Case No. 2:17-cv-01599-JAD-VCF, ECF No. 7 at 5 (D. Nev. Jul. 27, 2017). Your request in your attached letter to file additional lawsuits is denied because you have not provided me with enough information to determine whether your proposed lawsuits are frivolous. See De Long v. Hennessey, 912 F.2d 1144, 1148 (9th Cir. 1990) (“it is incumbent on the court to make ‘substantive findings as to the frivolous or harassing nature of the litigant’s actions.’”).

If you wish to file one or more lawsuits with this Court, please prepare a letter addressed to me explaining why those proposed lawsuits are not frivolous, along with:

1. A proposed Complaint for each lawsuit; and
2. A sworn declaration stating: (a) that the matters asserted in the new complaint or papers have never been raised and disposed of on the merits by any court; (b) that the claim or claims are not frivolous or made in bad faith; and (c) that you have conducted a reasonable investigation of the facts, and your investigation supports your proposed claim or claims.

If you do not comply with these requirements, I will summarily deny any future requests to file new lawsuits.
